We trust few Democrats are so verdant as to imagine that the monstrous bill which lished in our Congressional reports yesterday, was intended by its authors for the protection of colored voters, or for any other purpose than to resuscitate the agitation of the negro question. The agitation is dying out; and with the sinking Republican party. Unless it can be re- Sheriff. vived, nothing will be left to stimulate the lagging zeal of such Republicans as neither eck nor hold office, whose jaded enthusiyears of unremitted excitement.
